benefits

ORGANIC BARLEY GRASS

Organic young barley grass juice supplies an abundance of vitamins, minerals, antioxidants, amino acids, proteins, active enzymes, and chlorophyll that will help provide your body with essential nutrients, antioxidants and other phytochemicals that help increase energy levels, enhance digestion, promote better-looking hair, skin, and nails and protect the body from free radicals and toxins.

WHEAT GERM ESSENCE™

Wheat Germ Essence provides vitamins B1, B2, B3, B6, C and natural vitamin E. Vitamin B-complex helps our bodies convert food into energy and is necessary for the maintenance of all tissues. Vitamin E supports cardiovascular health, helps build red blood cells and muscle tissues and serves as an antioxidant. Because of Dr. Hagiwara's water extraction technique that eliminates fats and oils from the germ, the vitamin E in Wheat Germ Essence won't turn rancid under normal use and proper storage.

CARROT ESSENCE™

Carrot Essence captures three of nature's best antioxidants, alpha-carotene, beta-carotene and vitamin C. The fresh organic carrots are harvested at their nutritional peak, washed, juiced, and then spray-dried in a temperature-controlled manner to stabilize their nutrients. Maltodextrin, a complex carbohydrate, is added to coat and protect the delicate nutrients from harmful oxidation. Carrot Essence also contains acerola, a natural source of vitamin C made from the acerola berry. Carrot Essence provides Vitamin A (as alpha- and beta-carotene) that is important for maintaining healthy skin, eyesight, and immune system function. It is also essential for promoting strong teeth and bones and is vital to healthy liver function.

SOY ESSENCE™

Soybeans contain phytochemicals called isoflavones that may have important health benefits. Isoflavones are similar in structure to the body's natural estrogens but milder in their effects and help block the actions of potentially harmful pseudoestrogens that permeate our environment from sources such as plastics and pesticides. Since Soy Essence is made from whole soy sprout powder and whole soy germ, it contains additional support nutrients that may be important for maximal activity of its isoflavones.
